

The Salem Heartbeat

Sharing Christ with the world!

From the Pastor's Heart

Dear Salem Church Family,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Good Shepherd.

As we enter the month of February, we also begin the Season of Lent—a sacred journey of reflection, repentance, and renewed dependence on the Lord. Lent invites us to slow down, to examine our hearts, and to walk more intentionally with Christ as we make our way toward the cross and, ultimately, the joy of Easter.

Over the past weeks, we have been walking together through Psalm 23, discovering that true peace—shalom—is not the absence of trouble, but the presence of the Shepherd who leads us, restores us, and walks with us even through the valley. As we reflected on Psalm 23:5–6, I've been especially mindful of how these verses prepare our hearts for the Lenten journey ahead.

David's words were not written from a place of ease. They were shaped in hardship. David knew what it was like to be hunted, weary, and uncertain about the future. Yet in the middle of those circumstances, he could say with confidence, "You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies." God did not wait until the danger was gone to provide for him. He met him with grace right in the midst of struggle.

That truth deepens as David writes, "You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows." Long before David ever wore a crown, he had already been anointed and promised a future by God. That anointing did not remove the wilderness—it sustained him through it. In the same way, Lent reminds us that God's grace does not bypass the hard road, but carries us through it.

When David declares, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life," he is not speaking with uncertainty. He is resting in the covenant faithfulness of God. God's goodness and steadfast love do not merely follow at a distance—they pursue us. Even in seasons of repentance and self-examination, we are never moving away from God's grace; we are being drawn deeper into it.

And finally, David ends with this promise-filled hope: "I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever." For David, this was a longing for restored access to God's dwelling place—a hope rooted in God's promise that the wilderness would not be the final chapter.

Through Jesus Christ and the New Covenant established by His blood, we have been given something even greater than David could have imagined. We no longer journey through Lent trying to find where God dwells. Through the Holy Spirit, God now dwells within His people. One day we

PRAYER REQUESTS: Please continue using the Prayer Cards on Sundays as they allow the prayer request and name to be accurately passed from the Pastor to the Secretary to be added to the bulletin. It is very difficult to hear and record the requests when given verbally during the service. It also allows them to be read so those in the Fellowship Hall and parking lot hear them. Thank you for your help with this important ministry of the church.

To send requests through the Prayer Chain, you can email them to Sandi Barnett at:

LAUGH ON!

By Glenda Bennett

"Laugh on, laugh on" the good Lord said.
"Your victory's been proclaimed.
Though stumbling blocks will fall your way...
Make steps of them again."
The evil one can't keep you down
or keep your eyes unfocused.
For Jesus Christ wears the Victor's Crown
with His righteousness He smote us.
So...take what's pale and make it gold!
Touch that speck and make it bold!
Squeeze the good from every day!
Enjoy your work, enjoy your play!
There's not a thing in life that can spoil God's purpose or God's plan.
He's had His way - our day has come,
we're overcomers through the Son.
Because that's true, we can all laugh
no matter what may come our way.
We're winners - God has seen to that!
So...laugh on and give your joy away.

(Dedicated to Jack & Margaret Fretwell)

Thank you Salem for your generous donation for the Leland and Hearthstone Christmas gifts. We filled 102 gift bags for the residents and they were given to them at Christmas. We visited the Leland and several Salem folks came and we sang Christmas carols and visited with the residents.

Thank you again for always being the Little Church with the Big Heart.

will see Christ face to face, but even now we live, worship, and come to the Lord's Table as those who already dwell in God's presence.

Lent leads us toward the cross, but it does not leave us there. Each time we celebrate communion, we are reminded that the table is prepared, the cup is full, and the Shepherd is faithful. Communion helps us hold together repentance and hope, sacrifice and grace, the road of the cross and the promise of resurrection.

Church family, my prayer for you this Lenten Season is that you would walk slowly and honestly with the Shepherd—laying down what burdens your heart, receiving again the grace Christ offers, and trusting that goodness and mercy are pursuing you even now.

May this season shape us into a people who live not by striving, but by receiving—until the day we dwell fully and forever in the house of the Lord.

With gratitude and hope in Christ,

Pastor Brent Mangus
